dear
Cambridge Neighbor,

I'm pleased to provide you with "Henrietta's Guide to Cambridge Farmers' Markets" and Useful Information about Local Food. We're fortunate to have markets in Cambridge six days a week, and Wednesday in Somerville. As a city councillor and the Chair of the Health and Environment Committee, I am supporting Massachusetts agriculture, helping "sprout" more community gardens (40 more garden plots this year) and encouraging community support of food pantries.

Join me in making fresh food in Cambridge more available and sustainable.

Healthy eating!

Henrietta

Useful Information about Local Food

Community Gardens

To sign up for a Cambridge garden plot, call or email Jennifer Wright, Director of the Cambridge Conservation Commission:
617-349-4680, jwright@cambridgema.gov.

Community Supported Agriculture (CSA)

A prepaid "subscription" to a farm's produce for the season. To sign up for a CSA, go to www.farmfresh.org and click on "Community Supported Agriculture" to find CSAs available in Cambridge.

CitySprouts

To find out how to get involved with this non-profit that runs gardening projects at our public schools, go to www.citysprouts.org.

The Food Hotline

Locate food pantries and free meals when you need them, call 1-800-645-8333.

Cambridge Food Pantries and Meals Info

Go to www.cambridgema.gov/dhsp2 and click on "Housing Assistance, Homelessness and Hunger."

Food Stamps

Eligibility has expanded. Apply at CEOC, 11 Inman St.
